CONSTITUTION OF THE ORANGE COUNTY REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

ARTICLE I: NAME OF ORGANIZATION

The name of this organization will be the Orange County Republican Executive Committee. It shall be constituted as the Republican Executive Committee of the Republican Party within Orange County, Florida, in accordance with the applicable statutes in Florida and the Party Rules of the Florida Republican State Executive Committee.

ARTICLE II: Objectives

General purposes of this organization as a “political party” are to achieve the following objectives and aims:

- (a) Election to office of qualified Republican persons;
- (b) Foster loyalty to the Republican Party;
- (c) Promote an informed electorate through political education;
- (d) Increase Republican Registration;
- (e) Seek qualified Republicans to become candidates for local, county, state and federal offices;
- (f) Promote the election of all Republican candidates in the General Election;
- (g) In general to uphold the principles of freedom, equality and justice on which the Republican Party and the government of this nation is founded, as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and the state of Florida.

ARTICLE III: Membership

Section 1 - The Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall consist of one man and one woman, each being a registered Republican residing within each precinct. However, any precinct with more the 1000 registered voters shall have additional members in accordance with the provisions of the Rules of Procedure of the Republican Party of Florida.

Pursuant to the State Party Constitution, the State Committeeman and State Committeewoman shall be voting members at large of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee for all purposes including the election of officers at the organizational meeting. In addition, pursuant to F.S. 103.091(6)(a)1, each county executive committee shall include all members of the State Legislature who are residents of the county and members of their respective political party and who shall be known as at-large committeemen and committeewomen. Each member of the committee shall be entitled to one (1) vote.

Section 2 - DISTRICT UNITS - In Counties divided into 40 or more continuous precincts, the State Executive Committee may adopt a district unit of representation for such County Executive Committees. Upon adoption of a district unit of representation, the State Executive Committee shall request the supervisor of elections of the county, with approval of the Board of Commissioners, to provide for an appropriate number of election districts as nearly equal in number to registered voters as possible. Where the district unit of representation has been adopted, district representatives shall be elected in the same manner as precinct committeeman and committeewoman, and shall serve in place of precinct men and women.

Section 3 - VACANCIES - In the event no county committeeman or committeewoman are elected or a vacancy occurs for any other cause in the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of those present at a regular meeting of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee at which due notice of the meeting has been given to all members and at which a quorum is present. Such vacancy shall be filled by a qualified member of the political party residing in the precinct where the vacancy occurred and for the unexpired portion of the term and shall not be deemed a member until the name has been duly recorded with the Supervisor of Elections by the Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee or his designee and the candidate oath has been filed as required under Article III Section 5 of this Constitution.

To fill any vacancy in the Orange County Republican Executive Committee any eligible Republican in an open precinct may apply by (1) attending a meeting first, (2) completing an application at least ten days prior to the balloting, (3) completing the oaths for the Supervisor of Elections and Republican Party of Florida, and (4) attending a class on membership responsibilities. All these requirements must be done procedurally prior to being balloted and voted on to fill a vacancy in the Orange County Republican Executive Committee. The member must be present to be elected. Election shall be held by secret ballot at a regular meeting at which a quorum is present; a majority of those present is required for election.

No candidate for a vacancy on the committee who meets the registration and residence requirements and follows the rules of procedure prescribed for filling a vacancy can be rejected for consideration by a membership committee, board, or officer of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee. All such candidates must be voted upon by the Orange County Republican Executive Committee.

If a county committeeman or committeewoman moves from one precinct or district to another within the same county, and the new precinct or district has a vacancy, then the committeeman or committeewoman may be administratively moved to the new precinct or district without the requirement of an election as set forth above.

Section 4 - In the event of no election of a county committeeman or committeewoman, or where such vacancy is not filled by the Orange County Republican Executive Committee as herein provided, the Chairman of the State Executive Committee of the party may fill such vacancy by appointment, after giving sixty (60) days notice of his intention to do so to the Chairman by registered mail.

Section 5 – The Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, or his or her designee, shall file with the State Executive Committee and as applicable the Supervisor of Elections, the names and addresses of its officers and members within thirty (30) days of their election. Any member of Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall not be deemed a member until the candidate oath (pursuant to F.S. 99.021) has been signed and filed in the office of the Supervisor of Elections and the Republican Party loyalty oath (pursuant to Rule 9) has been filed with the Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, who shall cause the original Party loyalty oath to be forwarded to the Republican Party of Florida within thirty (30) days. After the organizational meeting required under Article IV of this Constitution, the list maintained by the State Executive Committee, as supplemented, shall constitute the official Orange County Republican Executive Committee membership roster.

Section 6 – Members elected by the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall file their Party loyalty oath with the Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, and the Chairman, or his or her designee shall forward the original signed oath to the Republican Party of Florida as required under Section 5 above. The oath or affirmation may be witnessed rather than notarized.

Section 7 - Each elected precinct committee person may have a likewise elected alternate county committee member. Alternate members shall have no vote, except in the absence of the member they duly represent. Each alternate member shall possess the qualification required of the member represented and shall be elected by the county committee. Alternate county committee members are not eligible to serve as elected officers on the County Executive Board except in counties with less than 750 registered Republicans, unless this rule is waived by the State Executive Board.

Section 8 – COUNTY EXECUTIVE BOARD – The Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall establish an Executive Board, whose membership shall include, but not be limited to, the elected officers of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, the State Committeeman, the State Committeewoman, and anyone appointed under this Constitution by the Chairman. The Chairman may appoint a General Counsel to serve as a member of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee.

The Executive Board of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee between its meetings, make recommendations to the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, and shall perform such other duties as may be specified by Party Rules. The Board shall be subject to the orders of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, and none of its acts shall conflict with action taken by the Orange County Republican Executive Committee. The Executive Board of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee may authorize spending of the funds of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee up to and including $2,500.00 solely at the discretion of the Executive Board of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee. Expenditures above $2,500.00 must be decided by the Orange County Republican Executive Committee.

Meetings of the Executive Board shall be called by the Chairman. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairman or upon the written request by a majority of the members of the Board.

The Chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall preside over all meetings of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee and its Executive Board, and shall accept the primary responsibility for seeing that each officer and committee member fulfills duties as prescribed herein; may establish, with the approval of the Executive Board, a headquarters; may appoint, committee chairman, subcommittee chairman, ad hoc committee chairman, a headquarters staff including a Financial Director, as needed. The Chairman may authorize spending of the funds of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee up to and including $500.00 solely at his discretion.

The Vice Chairman shall assume the duties of the Chair in his absence or inability to serve, shall assist the Chair in the performance of duties as necessary, and such other duties as may be assigned by the Chairman.

The Secretary shall record and report minutes of all meetings of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee and the Orange County Republican Executive Committee Executive Board and such other duties as may be assigned by the Chairman. Sufficient copies of such minutes shall be available at each meeting.

The Assistant Secretary shall perform the duties of the Secretary in his absence or inability to serve, shall assist the Secretary as needed, and such other duties as may be assigned by the Chairman.

The Treasurer shall be the custodian of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee funds and records, shall maintain full and accurate records of all financial transactions, and shall file all necessary financial reports as required by law; shall prepare and submit a monthly financial statement to the Orange County Republican Executive Committee with sufficient copies at each meeting, and such other duties as may be assigned by the Chairman. The Treasurer shall pay all bills promptly upon authorization subject to whatever governing rules are required.

The Assistant Treasurer shall perform the duties of the Treasurer in his absence or inability to serve; shall assist the Treasurer in the performance of his duties, serve as a member of fund raising projects as necessary, and such other duties as may be assigned by the Chairman.

The Executive Director shall be an organizer and coordinator of fund-raising projects, such as the Lincoln Day Dinner and shall create an annual budget for the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, and such other duties as may be assigned by the Chairman.

The Membership Committee Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall be appointed by the Chairman and keep all records, documents, and data concerning membership. As directed by the Chairman, the Membership Committee Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall keep the record of attendance of the meeting, any action taken to excuse the absences of its membership, and forward that information to the State Executive Committee of the Republican Party. Additionally, the Membership Committee may make administrative rules necessary to carry out its functions and such other duties as may be assigned by the Chairman.

ARTICLE IV: Organizational Meeting and Election of Officers

Section 1 - The outgoing Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall, within thirty (30) days after the committee members take office (December 1), call an organizational meeting for the purpose of electing officers. It shall be the responsibility of the outgoing Chairman to open the meeting, and the first order of business shall be the election of the Chairman and Vice Chairman as set forth in the rules and bylaws as promulgated by the State Executive Committee. Thereafter, the new chairman shall preside, and the agenda shall include, but not be limited to, the election of a Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, an Assistant Treasurer, and Executive Director, the filing of any vacancies on the committee, and any other business which may appropriately come before the committee.

The above officers shall be members of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, and all county party officers shall be elected for a two year term. At the conclusion of each two year term officers shall be elected in the same manner as is required at the organizational meeting. Officer elections held at the organizational meetings are final and are not subject to recall.

Section 2 - The Chairman shall appoint such standing committees, sub-committees, and ad hoc committees, their chairmen and such other officers as may be required in the administration of the county committee's business, as long as their functions do not violate any of the provisions of this Constitution, bylaws, or the applicable Florida laws. These committee and sub-committee chairman can be appointed to the Executive Board by the Chairman. The Chairman shall be considered a member of all committees.

Section 3 - The election of officers and filling of vacancies shall be by ballot. In the event there is but one nomination for any officer or office, the ballot may be dispensed with by unanimous vote of the membership present and eligible to vote. All nominations shall be from the floor. No ballot shall be preprinted with the name of any candidate.

Section 4 - The presiding officer at all meetings shall be the Chairman, and in the absence of the Chairman, the Vice Chairman, Secretary or Treasurer, in that order, shall preside. If none of the said officers are present, the membership, by a majority vote, shall name the presiding officer.

Section 5 - In the event the Chairman is unable to continue his duties the Vice Chairman, Secretary or Treasurer, in that order, temporarily assumes the duties of the Chairman and must within 60 days hold an election for the purpose of filling the vacancy. All vacancies shall be filled by the majority vote of a quorum present at the duly called meeting of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee.

Section 6 - A person may hold only one position as a county chairman or a state committeeman or state committeewoman, except in counties with less than 750 registered Republicans, unless this rule is waived by the State Executive Board.

ARTICLE V: Removal From Office

Section 1 - Any member or officer of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee may be removed from office upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee present at any regular or special meeting after ten (10) days notice to the membership of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee that a motion for the purpose of removal of a member or officer will be considered at a said meeting, provided that such two-thirds vote constitutes at least a majority of the full the Orange County Republican Executive Committee. The removal may be for any cause, including, but not limited to, an alleged violation of oath of office. However, any person wrongfully removed for violation of oath of office may qualify for reinstatement and reimbursement, including attorney fees as provided under Florida Statute 103.141. Removal shall be valid through the end of the respective member's term of office.

Section 2 - The member and/or officer cited with removal charges shall be served by certified mail at least ten (10) days prior to said regular or special meeting at which time the removal motion is to be heard with a complaint which shall set forth in particular the reasons for the removal charge.

Section 3 - Every political party office of the county committee shall be deemed vacant in the following cases:

- (a) by the death of the incumbent;
- (b) by his or her resignation;
- (c) by his or her removal as set forth above in section 1;
- (d) by his or her ceasing to be a resident of the county, district, or precinct for which he shall have been elected or appointed;
- (e) by his or her refusal to accept the office;
- (f) the conviction of the incumbent of any felony;
- (g) by his or her failure to attend, without good and sufficient reason, three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee or any four (4) regular meetings within the calendar year of which he or she is a member.

ARTICLE VI: Quorum

Section 1 - Forty percent of the members of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall be present to constitute a quorum. At no time shall less than 40 percent of the members constitute a quorum.

Section 2 - Use of proxies - There shall be no use of proxies for the Orange County Republican Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII: Powers and Duties of the Executive Committee

1. To adopt a constitution by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the full committee. County constitutions shall be reviewed and adopted at the beginning of each four year term. If the Orange County Republican Executive Committee fails to adopt and file with the Republican Party of Florida a County Constitution, the County Model Constitution shall prevail. The adopted Constitution shall be in effect for the members' four year term of office unless revised.
2. To adopt such bylaws as they may deem necessary by majority vote of the full committee. Such By-laws may not be in conflict with Florida Statutes, the RPOF Constitution, the RPOF Rules of Procedure, or this County Constitution.
3. To conduct regularly scheduled meetings as required under this Constitution. Special meetings may be called by the Chairman, Vice Chairman or upon signed petition of 35% of the membership of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, provided there is written notice of ten (10) days given to all members of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee and the subject of the special meeting is announced in the notice. Any petition to call a special meeting must identify the date and subject of the proposed special meeting, and the subject of the proposed special meeting must be within the authority of the Executive Committee. A copy of the signed petition shall be submitted to all members of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee in conjunction with the notice for the meeting. A quorum for such meeting is required.

4. To make party nominations when required by law.
5. To conduct campaigns for Republican state or local candidates selected by the party at the final primary election.
6. To raise and expend party funds for the maintenance and administration of the county party organization. However, that no funds may be spent by a committee except for bona fide services or material rendered to and received by the committee for the advancement of the party organization.
7. To approve the necessary subcommittees.
8. The Chairman and Treasurer of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall be accountable for the funds of such committee and jointly liable for their proper expenditure of authorized purposes only. All financial transactions shall require two authorized signatures. The Treasurer of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall maintain accurate records evidencing receipt and disbursement of all party funds received by the party, and such records shall be publicly audited at the end of each calendar year and a copy of such audit filed with the supervisor of elections and the State Executive Committee prior to April 1st of the ensuing year.
9. The Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee or his designee will furnish the State Executive Committee of the Republican Party a copy of the minutes of meetings, along with a report showing the record of attendance of the meetings and any action taken by the committee to excuse the absences of its membership for meetings of the committee.
10. The Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee or his designee shall furnish the State Executive Committee, within thirty (30) days of filing, a copy of the coversheet report of contributions and expenditures required by F.S. 106.29.
11. The Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall annually appoint an audit committee from among its members. The Audit committee shall perform an audit of the financial affairs of such Orange County Republican Executive Committee and cause the same to be made public.
12. To adopt resolutions of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee in the manner prescribed by this Section:

A. Resolutions with Prior Notice

Any proposed resolution shall be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee at least 15 days before the meeting of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee at which the resolution is to be considered. The proposed resolution shall be referred to the County Executive Board of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee for a review of its form based on its clarity, understandability, use of plain language, content and subject matter. Upon a two-thirds vote of the County Executive Board of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, the proposed resolution shall be placed on the agenda for the next meeting of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee.

B. Untimely Resolutions

Any proposed resolution not timely submitted under paragraph (A) may only be considered under emergency or extraordinary circumstances and if it is received at least 24 hours before the Orange County Republican Executive Committee meeting. The determination of emergency or extraordinary circumstances shall be in discretion of the Chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee or a two-thirds vote of the County Executive Board of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee. If approved for consideration by the County Executive Board of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, it shall be subject to the same process described in paragraph (A) for Resolutions with Prior Notice.

C. Required Vote for Passage

Passage of any proposed resolution by the Orange County Republican Executive Committee shall require a two-thirds vote of a quorum present.

ARTICLE VIII: Notice

Unless otherwise indicated in this Constitution, the bylaws of this County Executive Committee, the Rules of Procedure of the Republican Party of Florida, or the Constitution of the Republican Party of Florida, all required notices may be provided by e-mail, unless a member has indicated in writing to the Chairman and/or Secretary that they would prefer to receive notice by U.S. mail. Once a member has made such an indication it is good until such time as the member indicates in writing otherwise. Notice sent by U.S. mail shall be deemed provided on the date postmarked. To the extent such notice applies to a special meeting all required documentation pursuant to Article VII shall be attached to the e-mail notification. If a member challenges the sufficiency of an e-mail notification, the member shall be provided proof that the notice was timely provided.

ARTICLE IX: Amendments

Any amendments to this Constitution shall be adopted by no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the full committee, upon 20 days notice of the purpose of the meeting.

ARTICLE X: Parliamentary Authority

The latest revision of "Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised" shall be constituted as the authority governing the rules of procedure, except as otherwise limited by the laws of the State of Florida, the Rules of Procedure of the Republican Party of Florida, and the Constitution of The Republican Party of Florida and the Constitution and the bylaws duly adopted by this organization.

ARTICLE XI: Rules of Procedure

Rules of procedure as to the establishment of an Executive Board, number of committee meetings, not less than six each calendar year including one each quarter, and any other activities of the committee not in conflict with the State Executive Committee's rules, this Constitution and applicable state statutes shall be adopted by a majority vote of the full committee.

ARTICLE XII: Party Authority

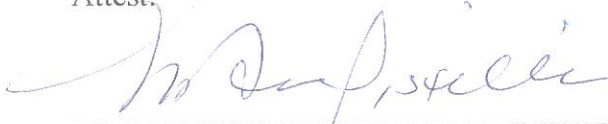

Final authority in all Republican Party matters and in the Party organization and/or government not specifically otherwise delegated by Florida Statutes shall vest in the Republican State Executive Committee, but may be delegated by the Republican State Executive Committee to the county committee in such manner and to such boards and/or committees as it shall from time to time determine by State Party Rule.

This Constitution of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee was duly adopted by the membership of the said committee this Thursday, December 10, 2020, at which a quorum of the membership was present.

Chairman, Orange County Republican Executive Committee

Attest:

Deputy State Director, Republican Party of Florida
